CHARLES H. FRANCIS
1902-1967

If a man has a talent and cannot use it, he has failed. If he has a talent and uses only half of it, he has partly failed. If he has a talent and learns somehow to use the whole of it, he has gloriously succeeded, and won a satisfaction and a triumph few men ever know.

Thomas Wolfe

To Charles H. Francis, who had a talent and used the whole of it to the betterment of the students of Avon High School, this yearbook is respectfully DEDICATED.

I Remember

The party for Mr. King . . . the Christmas tree . . . the senior class sit-in on April Fools . . . The Fetal pigs . . . Mr. Sullivan's "Climb down out of the trees" . . . Mr. Sanders' "Oh! I made a mistake." . . . Mrs. Marks history classes 1-yes, 2-no . . . rumble town U.S.A. . . . the sophomore boys . . . the elephant suit . . . Sylvia . . . baby blue eyes and teddy bear hands . . . 3,000 problems in physics . . . The old Mr. Riccardi . . . The jokes Mr. Luizzi must have given Mr. Sanders when he left . . . The school lunches . . . Mr. Farrells five-minute mid-terms . . . Mr. McAfee and his temper tantrums . . . Miss Mac Alevi . . . stolen telephones . . . marching to assembly with a flag . . . Freshman ancient history . . . all those assemblies and those great speakers . . . the kids "dwitched" in the corridors in 10th grade . . . I remember 13 yrs. of school (nobody's perfect).
